There has been a printing error within the school planners. On page 6, term date is incorrectly showing 4th January 2017 as start of term. The correct date for children to return is Tuesday 3rd January 2017. Apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Please ensure you check the school website as we are always updating it with events including what's been happening in school. Also please ensure the school office has your email address for use with our Parent Mail system, as we will using this system more in the future for booking open evening appointments and payments for school trips, uniform, etc.
