What this film is about:

The film is about a young boy called Hiccup who lives in a small village with his dad. Vikings and dragons live in the village too. The Vikings try to kill the dragons but Hiccup cant kill the dragons he makes friends with a dragon called Toothless instead.

My review of this film:

I loved this film because the theme was great the action was also brilliant. My favourite part of the film was when Hiccup met the dragon and named him Toothless. My least favourite part was when Hiccup lost his foot. I would recommend this film to my daddy even though he has watched it before. I think he would like to watch it again.

My score for this film is: 9/10
