What this film is about:

This film is about a boy who finds a giant in the woods. The boy sort of lives with the giant. Everyone thinks the Iron Giant is a monster and they wanted to kill him.

My review of this film:

I liked the giant in the film because in a scene where the boy is trying to teach the giant how to talk. I liked the film because it's a bit funny. There are some of the best scenes when the giant eats scrap metal , he makes a grinding sound. The next one when the giant trys to eat railway tracks. The giant breaks railway tracks and startes eating it, the hear boy hears train coming and tells giant to fix tracks back together he gets them back just in time. The last one is when boy says don't follow and near the ends the giant says don't follow.

I liked the film because the hilarious Iron Giant. I would definitely recommend the film to a friend.

My score for this film is: 10/10
